

HASA'S Awards and Recognitions Program

By Elsa Tuggle

Annually, HASA recognizes at the Spring Social, members who made significant contributions or demonstrated outstanding leadership during the year to Hillsborough Public Schools or to their professional organization. A request for nominations for these awards appears below. Your help is needed in identifying and recommending candidates worthy of consideration for this honor. When you review the awards and criteria for selection, it will be easy to match a name to a category ...the few minutes it takes to submit a letter of nomination will translate to a lifetime of appreciation to the award recipients. All current members are eligible to nominate appropriate individuals except members who are currently serving on the HASA Executive Board.

The Dr. Earl J. Lennard Leadership Award is presented to a HASA member who has demonstrated outstanding leadership ability. Some past recipients of this award have been Mrs. Gwen Luney, Mrs. Cathy Valdes, Dr. Michael Grego, and Mrs. Nuri Ayres

The HASA Professional Involvement Award is presented to a member who has advanced the professional image of the school administrator by action, word, or deed. Past recipients include Mr. Mark West, Mrs. Sherrie Sikes, Dr. Joyce Haines and Mr. Randy Poindexter.

The HASA Public Relations Award is presented to any person or organization whose efforts have resulted in a significant increase in public knowledge of the services or accomplishments of Hillsborough County Public Schools. Past recipients include Mr. Jack Davis, Ms. Marian Lauria-Davis, Ms. Janelle Walkley, and Mr. Mark Hart.

The Raymond O. Shelton Award is presented to any person or organization who has made contributions to the Hillsborough County Public Schools in an outstanding manner. In the past, recipients have included Mrs. Beth Shields, Dr. Ken Allen, Mr. Chuck Fleming, and Mr. Ken Otero.

To nominate a candidate, please attach a separate sheet with a paragraph that lists the significant accomplishments or outstanding contributions of your nominee that relate directly to the category of your nomination.
