

HASA's Mentoring Program

As new administrators enter the profession, a need to nurture, cultivate and assist these professionals arises. HASA started something wonderful with the two Administrative Pearls workshops held in the Fall of 2009. Opportunity to meet, share and collaborate availed itself. The sessions were attended by non-tenured as well as veteran and retired administrators. Several pearls of wisdom were shared. Everyone came away from the experience with a sense of fulfillment and satisfaction.

The goal to mentor is critical to continual growth and survival. HASA continues to develop its mentoring program which can be beneficial to those with a common interest. On December 2, 2010, participants of the 2010-2011 mentoring program met at Hillsborough High School for an evening session with Professional Development's supervisor of Management and Training, Ms. Trish McManus. This was an eventful workshop and covered various topics including more detailed explanation on current trainings and the new EET program. Participants had an opportunity for group interaction, as well as received a souvenir book and pin from HASA. Along with the committee members (Tee Solomon, Maria Singfield and Sylvia Albritton) who facilitated the session, HASA's executive director, Dr. John Miliziano was in attendance. The group's next session will be held on April 7th at the ISC building.

Applications for Group Two of the HASA Mentoring Program are now being accepted. An orientation meeting will be scheduled in the fall of 2011. However, your input is needed now to facilitate planning. Principals and assistant principals from elementary, middle school and high school levels are encouraged to respond.
